

Layne Pethick is a Regional Consultant for autism and behavior. He is currently ABD and has a Master's degree in Special Education with concentration in ASD and E/BD, along with degrees in Elementary Education, Early Childhood Education, and Reading. Layne has experience as a general and special education teacher, school administrator, district trainer, program director, and in higher education as a professor of special education, assessment, early childhood and teacher education. He has several articles published and has presented at local, state, national, and international conferences.